Serving in our community this Christmas season. The Lanigan and District Food Bank is busy every month and at Christmas the need grows just a little bit more.

Think about giving a boost to items available on their shelves before Christmas by dropping off non-perishable food items in the bin here at the church or the drop off inside the Co-Op store.

Cereals, canned meats, peanut butter and jam are always great to have plenty of. Monetary donations for income tax receipt can be made by dropping off a cheque at the Conexus Credit Union.
